Question

Since the nation’s earliest days, both houses of the United States Congress have counted many military veterans among their elected officials, including Hiram L. Fong (who served in the US Army Air Force) and Ralph Harold Metcalfe Sr. (who served in the US Army). A research institute gathered historical data about congressional members who have reported past military experience and determined that _____

Which choice most effectively uses data from the graph to complete the sentence?

- Answer
- A. from 2003 to 2023, the House of Representatives had a higher percentage of those members than the Senate did.
 - B. from 1953 to 2003, those members constituted a majority in both houses of Congress.
 - C. the percentage of those members decreased substantially in both houses of Congress from 1973 to 2013.
 - D. the percentage of those members remained fairly consistent, regardless of house, from 1993 to 2023.

Correct Answer: C

Rationale

Choice C is the best answer because it accurately uses data from the graph to complete the statement regarding the research institute’s findings about veteran representation in Congress. The graph shows that the percentage of veterans in both houses of Congress decreased dramatically from 1973 to 2013. In 1973, the House of Representatives consisted of approximately 74% veterans, and the Senate was made up of
